Performance Update

For the six-month period measuring January 1 through June 30 2019, the Property achieved a $276 Average Daily Room Rate (“ADR”), 71% Average Occupancy and $200 Revenue per Available Room (“RevPAR”). As shown in the table below, this operating performance represents a slight year-over-year growth rate in ADR and small year-over-year decline in Occupancy and RevPAR. Due to continued oversupply in the local hotel market, average RevPAR performance across the city struggled with a decline of 4.5% year-over-year for the six-month period¹.

Summary of Key Revenue Metrics

	First Half 2019	First Half 2018
	Actual	Actual	% Change
ADR	$276	$274	1%
Occupancy	71%	73%	-3%
RevPAR	$200	$201	0%

Despite the year-over-year increase in ADR, the property’s six-month Total Revenue was $4.8 million, which is approximately, $100K lower than the Total Revenue for same period last year. To expand, there has been approximately, $200K less this year in room revenue generated directly through the Online Travel Agents’ revenue-channel, inclusive of Booking.com and Expedia, this year which AKA believes is a factor of market conditions. This underperformance led to a year-over-year decline in Net Operating Income (“NOI”) as well, which is shown in greater detail within the table below.

Summary of Key Financial Performance

	First Half 2019	First Half 2018
	Actual	Actual	% Change
*Total Revenue	$ 4,835,442	$ 4,935,448	-2%

When compared with the anticipated operating performance at stabilization, which was initially forecasted for full-year 2019 at $22-million of Total Revenue and $9.3-million of NOI, the current results are significantly lower and therefore, the Property is not generating sufficient cash flow to meet its current and anticipated debt obligations. Pursuant to the property management agreement, in the Summer of 2020 AKA's management contract will be up for review and if, as anticipated, AKA fails the performance termination test, we will have the option to exercise our right to terminate their management contract and engage a new manager for the property. In previous communications, we have expressed our concern with the operating budgets that we are provided each year from AKA. Unfortunately, AKA continues to underperform as compared to the budgets they provide. For the six-month period in 2019, the actual NOI generated at the Property was approximately, $1.3 million lower than AKA's budgeted forecast. As evident in the table below, the underperformance in NOI is primarily due to AKA's failure to generate ample room revenue. Furthermore, although actual operating expenses were approximately $54,000 less than the budgeted amount, industry-wide standard is that some operating expenses are correlated to occupancy and room revenue. Therefore, since fewer rooms and less revenue were booked than forecasted, we would have expected that a larger expense savings than the $54,000-figure.

Budget Actual Variance

First Half 2019

	Actuals	Budget	% Change	$ Change
*Total Revenue	$ 4,835,442	$ 6,167,068	-22%	$ (1,331,626)
Operating Expenses	4,550,379	4,604,549	-1%	(54,170)
*Net Operating Income	$ 285,063	$ 1,562,519	-82%	$ (1,277,456)

*The NOI and Total Revenue shown in the tables above does not include the accrued commercial rental income from our restaurant retail tenant, Blue Ribbon Federal Grill. Due to continued underperformance, $150,000 of additional income was not collected in both Jan-Jun 2018 and Jan-Jun 2019. Our management agreement with Blue Ribbon includes a management rent of $25,000 per month and Blue Ribbon has not paid us a management rent since inception. For accounting purposes, this accrued commercial income will be displayed on the accompanying Statement of Operations within this report. Imperative to highlight that although Blue Ribbon is not in breach of the agreement, our right to terminate the agreement will occur in April 2020. Until then the management rent will continue to accrue.

Budget references AKA's operating budget provided to ownership prior to the year and may differ with more conservative operating forecasts created by Prodigy Network and included in past reports.

While we believe AKA has performed well in certain areas, such as increasing weekend-specific transient room revenue and growing corporate room booking revenue, the performance gap between current results and forecasted results is too large. As highlighted in our previous communication, the joint venture partnership that owns the AKA Wall Street is comprised of affiliates of Prodigy Network, Shorewood Real Estate Group and Korman Communities, and together, the partnership engaged Eastdil in late June to exclusively market the asset for sale. The property is currently on the market with progress updates including several prospective buyers conducting site tours and, in total, over one-hundred real estate firms requesting additional information to evaluate the deal. We have also engaged Eastdil's capital markets team to explore the alternative debt markets to re-finance the property ahead of the senior and mezzanine debt maturity dates in December 2019. It is anticipated that re-financing the property to a sustainable level of debt obligation will require additional capital contributions from investors as it was required in May 2019. Furthermore, the investment manger has engaged Newmark Knight Frank as an advisor to evaluate the most optimal plan ahead for the Property, including alternative operational and financing strategies We will continue to keep you apprised of the progress.

*Total Gross Operating Profit does not include accrued commercial rental income. It only measures the profit margin between direct hotel revenues and operating expenses.

The large increase in mezzanine debt in June 2019 is an accounting adjustment by AKA and does not accurately reflect cashflow and balances. This is the result of expensing 2 months of interest (May interest which was cash paid in June, and the accrual for the June interest that will be paid in July). The additional $50k accrued in June (~$250k to be paid in July vs ~$200k historically) is due to the recent upsizing of the mezzanine debt as part of the AKA WS recap as communicated in the previous communication.

Introduction to the Unaudited Financial Statements

The June 30, 2019 unaudited financial statements of the 84 William fund are presented at fair market value based on the most recent appraisal of the underlying property. The Funds' financials, together with the operating performance of the property, are intended to provide the current value of your investment as of June 30, 2019 and a detailed synopsis of the property's actual operating performance, respectively.

The Funds' unaudited financial statements are being presented on a consolidated basis for 84 William Street Realty Associates LLC, 84 William Street NewCo Inc., and Prodigy Shorewood New York Rep Co., collectively referred to as the Fund.

Description of Funds' Assets

The Fund has invested in 84 William Street JV LLC, the joint venture. The joint venture is a partnership with KCI William LLC, which is an affiliate of the hotel operator of the property, Korman Communities. The Fund owns a 90% ownership interest in the joint venture, which itself wholly owns the property at 84 William Street, New York, NY through one or more controlled entities.

The property was appraised by a third party appraisal firm on December 19, 2018. The appraiser used the Income Capitalization Approach, which considered the forecasted operating results of the stabilized property, actual operating results to date, market conditions, hotel and extended stay industry comparables, etc. in order to model the future cash flows of the property. After applying market discount and cap rates to the forecasted future cash flows, the appraisal report concluded the As Is Value of the property on December 31, 2018 was $153,000,000. The Investment Manager has determined this appraised value to be an appropriate valuation of the property for purposes of June 30, 2019 unaudited financial statements.

The Investment Manager then values the Funds' ownership interest in the property by determining the amount which would be distributed to the Fund, by the joint venture, in the event of a hypothetical liquidation of the ownership interest in the property.

At December 31, 2018 the Investment Manager has valued the Funds' ownership interest as follows:

Fair Value of Property	$153,000,000 (sales price)
Less: Senior Debt Payoff	($84,000,000)
Less: Mezzanine Debt Payoff	($24,217,660)
Add: Net Assets of Property	$3,274,360

Introduction to the Unaudited Financial Statements (continued)

The uses of proceeds are presented above in order of seniority.

The Senior and Mezzanine Debt Payoff represents the total amount of the debt outstanding at June 30, 2019.

The Net Assets of Property represent lender escrows and other cash on hand in excess of unpaid operating expenses and other liabilities of the property.

The MezzCoII capital and return represents capital contributions by the members of 84 William MezzCoII LLC, which are structurally senior to the Funds' interest in the property.

The Proceeds distributable to KCI William LLC represent the fair value of that 10% ownership interest in the joint venture.

The ending proceeds distributable to the Fund, of $36,101,165, represents the fair value of the Fund's investment in the joint venture as of June 30, 2019. This value is presented on the Fund's balance sheet, which follows, as the total of the Investment, cost basis and Investment, unrealized loss based on fair market value.

The value of the investment combined with other net assets or liabilities of the Fund on June 30, 2019, per the balance sheet which follows, total the Net Asset Value of the Fund. The distribution waterfall as defined in the Offering Memorandum is applied to this Net Asset Value in order to determine the amount distributable to each preferred and common member of the Fund. Such value then presents the fair value of the subscription made by each member.

Footnotes to the Unaudited Financial Statements

Commentary on the Statements of Assets and Liabilities:

Cash

The balance of cash on hand at June 30, 2019 has decreased since December 31, 2018 due to the payment of fund operating expenses and syndication costs.

Investment, at cost and Investment, unrealized loss based on fair market value

The investment, at cost balance represents the cost basis of the Funds' ownership of the interest in the joint venture as of June 30, 2019. The investment, unrealized loss balance represents the depreciation of this investment based on the fair value of the property at June 30, 2019. Such fair value has been determined by the aforementioned independent appraisal report, which concluded the property value of $153,000,000 as-is. The total of the investment cost and unrealized loss ($36,101,165) represents the proceeds the Fund would receive from the joint venture in the event of a liquidation of the investment.

Due to Manager

This balance represents accrued and unpaid asset management fees due to the Investment Manager.

Accounts payable and accrued expenses

This balance represents ongoing fund costs which have been incurred but not yet paid at June 30, 2019. The balance is primarily due to third party vendors who provide professional services to the Fund.

Note payable to Manager and Accrued interest

These balances represents the principal and accrued interest on a promissory note payable to the Investment Manager. The principal of this note results from working capital advances the Investment Manager has made to the Fund, substantially so the Fund could pay its service providers.

Preferred return distributions payable

This liability represents preferred distributions to investors which have accrued through June 30, 2019 but were unpaid at that date.

Subscriptions received in advance

This liability represents cash received by the Fund from new investors, which has been received in advance of the approval of that investor's subscription. Once approved, this liability is relieved and the cash received is considered a capital contribution.

Commentary on the Statement of Operations:

The Fund has incurred an unrealized loss on its investment in the joint venture over the period ended June 30, 2019.

The Fund has also incurred ongoing operating expenses, including asset management fees due to the Investment Manager in the amount of 0.5% per year on the greater of the appraised value of the property or cost basis in the property. Further operating expenses relate primarily to fees due to the fund administrator, NES Financial, and other organizations which provide professional and legal services to the Fund.

Commentary on the Statement of Changes in Members' Equity:

Total Members' Equity of the Fund has decreased from December 31, 2018, due primarily to the unrealized loss on the investment and fund operating costs.

The net decrease in members' equity from operations has been re-allocated, between Preferred Interests and Common Interests, based on applying the distribution waterfall as defined in the Offering Memorandum to the Net Asset Value of the Fund. Should the Fund distribute all net assets on June 30, 2019, the ending equity balance on that date is the amount which would be distributed to Preferred and Common interest holders, respectively.
